CFAES SESQUICENTENNIAL: BUCKEYES WORLDWIDE

We're celebrating 150 years of The Ohio State University, formerly the Ohio Agricultural and Mechanical College, and the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences (CFAES). We invite CFAES Buckeyes worldwide to participate in our sesquicentennial by sharing a photo of you with this pennant during your daily activities or global travels. To do this, take a picture with your pennant and submit it here:

go.osu.edu/cfaes_buckeyesworldwide. Include your name, your connection to CFAES or your CFAES major(s), your graduation year (if you've already graduated), and a short story about your time at CFAES and/or where you are now. Find us on social media and join in on the fun @CFAES_OSU, #CFAES150. Help us reach a goal of 150 pictures around the world during 2020!
